

Copyright Restrictions

The library will adhere to copyright laws in the management of the collection. A single copy will be made only to replace an item that is damaged, deteriorating, lost or stolen, and only if the library has found that a replacement cannot be obtained at a fair price. The copy may be made from the document held in the EOU collection or from the document held at another library, if a copy cannot otherwise be obtained at a fair price, and if the requirements of Reserve Service are met (i.e., permission obtained and/or fees paid).
